Further, notice is hereby given that the said notification will be taken into consideration by the Central Government on or after the expiry of sixty days from the date on which copies of this notification as published in the Gazette of India are made available to the public;

Any person interested in making any objection or suggestion on the proposals contained in the draft notification may do so in writing within the period so specified through post to the Secretary, Ministry of Environment, Forest and Climate Change, Indira Paryavaran Bhawan, JorBagh Road, Aliganj, New Delhi-110003 or electronically at email address: mishra.vp@gov.in or diriapolis-moefcc@nic.in or prasoon.tripathi76@gov.in

GSR..... (E) -In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 53 of the Air (Prevention and Control of Pollution) Act, 1981 (14 of 1981), the Central Government, hereby makes the following rules to further amend the Air (Prevention and Control of Pollution) Rules, 1982:

1. Short title and commencement: -

(1) These rules may be called the Air (Prevention and Control of Pollution) (Amendment) Rules, 2024.

(2) They shall come into force from the date of publication in the Official Gazette.

2. Definitions: -

(1) In Rule 2, after clause (a) the following clause shall be inserted namely: -

“(aa)” “adjudicating officer” means any officer appointed/notified under section 39A of the Act.

(ef) “Presenting Officer” means the officers (or) their authorized representative as per Appendix – B for taking cognizance of non-compliance (or) contravention of the provisions of the Act within their respective jurisdiction and for initiating and presenting the matter before the concerned Adjudicating Officer.”

(2). The words and expressions used and not defined in these rules but defined in the Act and rules made thereunder shall have the same meaning as assigned to them in the Act and the said rules, as the case may be.

3. After Chapter VII and rule 17, the following Chapter and rules shall be inserted, namely: -

CHAPTER 8

RULE 18. APPOINTMENT OF ADJUDICATING OFFICER

- (1) The Secretary in- charge of the Environment Department of the State/Union Territory Administration (or) any other officer not below the rank of Secretary to the State Government nominated by the State Government and Union Territory Administration shall be the ex-officio Adjudicating Officer for the respective State and Union Territories.
- (2) The Central Government may appoint (i) Adjudicating Officer at Centre level not below the level of Joint Secretary to the Government of India and (ii) more than one Adjudicating Officer, not below the level of Secretary to the State Government, in a State/ Union Territory, either on its own motion or on a written request by the concerned State Government and Union Territory Administration.
- (3) The Adjudicating Officer may be provided with requisite manpower assistance, office space and technical assistance by the Central Government / State Government / Union Territory Administration as the case may be.

RULE 19. COGNIZANCE AND PROCESSING OF MATTERS

- (1) No Adjudicating Officer shall take cognizance of any non-compliance or contravention of the provisions of this Act, or the rules made or orders or directions issued thereunder, unless such matter is initiated by the Presenting Officer, along with all necessary documents, either on its own motion or on receipt of a representation.
- (2) The Officers authorized for taking cognizance of violations within their respective jurisdiction shall present the matter before the concerned Adjudicating Officer of the State/Union Territory, as per the jurisdiction mentioned therein. The list of Officers is provided in the Appendix-B.
- (3) The Presenting Officer shall, before forwarding the matter under Rule 19(1) to the Adjudicating Officer, process the same exercising reasonable due diligence, in order to bring on record all relevant facts and circumstances that need to be taken into account for imposing penalty, and also to ascertain if it is a matter necessary for adjudication.

RULE 20. MANNER OF INQUIRY BY ADJUDICATING OFFICER.

- (1) Within 30 days of receipt of a matter, the Adjudicating Officer shall issue notice to the concerned Presenting Officer as well as to the person against whom non- compliance or contravention is alleged, along with the particulars of the matter against him clearly specifying the nature of non-compliance or contravention, and such person may either appear personally or through an authorized representative, on such date as specified, which shall not be less than 15 days from the date of notice received and shall not exceed 30 days, in such format as may be prescribed by the Central Government.
- (2) On such date as specified in the Notice, the person or his authorized representative may admit or deny the allegations levelled against him, before the Adjudicating Officer.
- (3) Under sub-rule (2), if the person or his representative admits to the allegations, the Adjudicating Officer shall state in his order such admission of the respondent, along with the quantum of penalty imposed in such format as may be prescribed by the Central Government, and send a copy of the order to the concerned Presenting Officer as well as the person who has lodged the matter, if applicable.
- (4) In cases not covered under sub-rule (3), the Adjudicating Officer shall fix a date for inquiry and communicate the same to the concerned Presenting Officer, for presentation of the matter.
- (5) On the date fixed, the Adjudicating Officer shall give an opportunity to the person to produce documents or evidence as he may consider relevant to the inquiry.
- (6) If any person fails or refuses to appear before the Adjudicating Officer as required by sub-rule (5) without sufficient cause, the Adjudicating Officer may proceed with the inquiry in the absence of such person.
- (7) While holding such inquiry, the Adjudicating Officer shall have power to summon and enforce the attendance of any person acquainted with the facts and circumstances of the matter to give evidence or to produce any document which, in the opinion of the Adjudicating Officer, may be useful for or relevant to the subject matter of the inquiry.

Explanation: For the purposes of this sub-rule, the Adjudicating Officer shall have the following powers of a Civil Court, as specified in the Civil Procedure Code, 1908:

- (a) Summoning and enforcing the attendance of any person and examining him on oath;
- (b) Requiring the discovery and production of documents or other electronic records; and
- (c) Receiving evidence on affidavits.
- (8) On presentation of matter by the concerned Presenting Officer, defense given by the person and recording of such information as necessary, the Adjudicating Officer shall either dismiss the allegation or make such other order as it deems fit.
- (9) All orders of the Adjudicating Officer shall be speaking orders, irrespective of whether penalty has been imposed by such order or not.

(10) The Adjudicating Officer shall complete the adjudication of every matter within three months from the date fixed under sub-rule (4), which is extendable up to three more months if sufficient cause exists.

(11) If the subject-matter of the matter received under sub-rule (1) of Rule 19 is already in question before the National Green Tribunal or any other Court of competent jurisdiction on the date of receipt of the matter, the proceedings under this Rule shall be initiated by the Adjudicating Officer in parallel and pass order as indicated in Rule 23 unless such proceedings have been explicitly stayed by the Court.

RULE 21. TRANSFER OF MATTERS AND PROCEEDINGS

(1) If the matter is made to a Presenting Officer which does not have jurisdiction to entertain it as per sub-rule (3) of Rule 19, it shall transfer the matter to the concerned Presenting Officer within fifteen days of the receipt of such matter, along with reasons of such belief, in such format as may be prescribed by the Central Government.

(2) If on inquiry under Rule 20, it appears to the Adjudicating Officer at any stage of the proceedings before signing the final order, that the case is one which ought to be tried by any other Adjudicating Officer, as the case may be, he shall transfer the case to such officer along with the copy of matter and a record of proceedings, in such format as may be prescribed by the Central Government.

(3) The Adjudicating Officer to whom such case is transferred may, in his discretion, re-hear the entire case from its inception.

(4) If in the course of proceedings, it is found that the subject-matter of any proceedings is already adjudicated upon, the Adjudicating Officer shall summarily dismiss the proceedings.

RULE 22. MANNER OF SERVICE OF NOTICE

Every notice issued to a person shall be served on him in the following manner, namely:

- i. By sending it to the person by registered post with acknowledgement due, to the address of his place of residence or his last known place of residence or the place where he carried on, or last carried on, business or personally works, or last worked, for gain; or
- ii. By sending it to the registered email of the person, if available;
- iii. Where it cannot be served under clause (a) or wherever applicable, (b), every such Notice shall be affixed on the outer door or some other conspicuous part of the premises in which that person resides or is known to have last resided, or carried on business or personally works or last worked for gain and the written report thereof shall be accompanied by the geo-tagged images of the notice.

RULE 23. ORDER OF THE ADJUDICATING OFFICER

(1) Every order passed by the Adjudicating Officer shall be dated and signed by the Adjudicating Officer, in such format as may be prescribed by the Central Government.

(2) The Adjudicating Officer shall send a copy of the order passed by him to the person in default, the Central Government, the concerned regulatory authority, the person lodging the matter and any other person which the Adjudicating Officer considers appropriate.

(3) Any order passed under this Rule shall be subject to the outcome of any proceedings mentioned under sub-rule (11) of Rule 20.

RULE 24. APPEALS FROM THE ORDER OF THE ADJUDICATING OFFICER

(1) All appeals from the order(s) passed by the Adjudicating Officer under the Act shall lie to the National Green Tribunal established under section 3 of the National Green Tribunal Act, 2010 (19 of 2010), as per Section 39B of the Act.

(2) If the person who has lodged the matter is aggrieved by the order of the Adjudicating Officer, he shall also follow the process under Section 39B of the Act, so far as it may be practicable.

RULE 25. FACTORS TO BE CONSIDERED WHILE DETERMINING QUANTUM OF PENALTY
